(4) Liability under this section shall be joint and several for any act committed by two or more persons.

Section 21-259. Civil actions for false claims.

(1) The County Manager may investigate a violation under Section 21-258. If the County Manager finds that a person has violated or is violating Section 21-258, he or she may bring a civil action against the person on behalf of the County.

(2) A person may bring a civil action for a violation of Section 21-258 for the person and for the County. Civil actions instituted under this ordinance shall be governed by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and shall be brought in the name of the County.

(a) The complaint shall be identified on its face as a qui tam action and shall be filed under seal in the circuit court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, in and for Miami-Dade County. Immediately upon filing of a complaint by a person, a copy of the complaint and written disclosure of substantially all material evidence and information the person possesses shall be served on the County Manager by registered mail, return receipt requested. The County Manager may elect to proceed with the action, in lieu of the qui tam plaintiff, on behalf of the County, within 180 days after he or she receives both the complaint and the material evidence and information.

(b) The County Manager, for good cause shown, may petition the court to extend the time during which the complaint remains under seal under subsection (a). Any such motion may be supported by affidavits or other submissions in camera. The defendant is not required to respond to any complaint filed under this section until twenty (20) days after the complaint is unsealed and served upon the defendant in accordance with law.

(c) Before the expiration of the 180-day period or any extensions obtained under subsection (b), the County Manager shall:

i. proceed with the action, in which case the action is conducted by the County Attorney on behalf of the County; or

ii. notify the court that the County declines to take over the action, in which case the person bringing the action has the right to conduct the action.

(d) When a person files an action under this section, no person other than the County Manager on behalf of the County may intervene or bring an action under this ordinance based on the facts underlying the pending action.

Section 21-260. Rights of the parties in civil actions.

(1) If the County Manager, on behalf of the County, elects to proceed with the action, he or she has the primary responsibility for prosecuting the action, and is not bound by any prior or subsequent act(s) of the person bringing the action. The County may also voluntarily dismiss the action notwithstanding the objections of the person bringing the action.

(2) If the County Manager elects not to proceed with the action, the person bringing the action has the right to conduct the action. If the County Manager so requests, he or she shall be served with copies of all pleadings and motions filed in the action and copies of all deposition transcripts. When the person bringing the action proceeds with the claim, the court may permit the County to take over the action on behalf of the County at a later date upon a showing of good cause.

(3) Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to limit the authority of the County or the qui tam plaintiff, proceeding pursuant to Section 21-259(2), to compromise a claim brought in a complaint filed under this ordinance if the court determines, after a hearing, that the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under all the circumstances.

Section 21-261. Awards to plaintiffs bringing action.

(1) If the County proceeds with and prevails in an action brought by a person under this ordinance, except as provided in subsection (2), the court shall order the distribution to the person of 10 percent of the proceeds recovered under any judgment obtained by the County in an action under Section 21-258 or of the proceeds of any settlement of the claim.

(2) If the County proceeds with an action which the court finds to be based primarily on disclosures of specific information, other than that provided by the person initiating the action, relating to allegations or transactions in a criminal, civil, or administration hearing; a legislative, administrative, or inspector general report, hearing, audit, or investigation; or from the news media, the court may award such sums as it considers appropriate, but in no case more than 5 percent of the proceeds recovered under a judgment or received in settlement of a claim under this ordinance, taking into account the significance of the information and the role of the person bringing the action in advancing the case to litigation.

(3) If the County does not proceed with an action under this ordinance, the person bringing the action or settling the claim shall receive 25 percent of the proceeds recovered under a judgment rendered in an action under this ordinance or in settlement of a claim under this ordinance.

(4) Any payment under this section to the person bringing the action shall be paid only out of the proceeds recovered from the defendant.

(5) Whether or not the County proceeds with the action, if the court finds that the action was brought by a person who planned, initiated, or furthered the violation of Section 21-258 upon which the action was brought, the person shall be dismissed from the civil action and shall not receive any share of the proceeds of the action. Such dismissal shall not prejudice the right of the County to continue the action.

Section 21-262. Expenses; attorney's fees and costs.

(1) If the County initiates an action under this ordinance or assumes control of an action brought by a person under this ordinance, and the County prevails in such action, the County shall be awarded its reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs.

(2) If the court awards the person bringing the action proceeds under this ordinance, the person shall also be awarded an amount for reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Payment for reasonable attorney's fees and costs shall be made from the recovered proceeds before the distribution of any award.

(3) If the County does not proceed with an action under this ordinance and the defendant is the prevailing party, the court shall award the defendant reasonable attorney's fees and costs against the person bringing the action.

(4) No liability shall be incurred by the County for any expenses, attorney's fees, or other costs incurred by any person in bringing or defending an action under this ordinance, except as otherwise specifically provided by law.

Section 21-263. Exemptions to civil actions.

(1) In no event may a person bring an action under Section 21-258 based upon allegations or transactions that are the subject of a civil action or an administrative proceeding in which the County is already a party.

(2) No court shall have jurisdiction over an action brought under this ordinance based upon the public disclosure of allegations or transactions in a criminal, civil, or administrative hearing; in a legislative, administrative, or inspector general report, hearing, audit, or investigation; or from the news media, unless the action is brought by the County, or unless the person bringing the action is an original source of the information. For purposes of this subsection, the term "original source" means an individual who has direct and independent knowledge of the information on which the allegations are based and has voluntarily provided the information to the County Manager before filing an action under this ordinance based on the information.

(3) No court shall have jurisdiction over an action where the person bringing the action under Section 21-258 is:

(a) acting as an attorney for the County; or

(b) an employee or former employee of the County, and the action is based, in whole or in part, upon information obtained in the course or scope of County employment.

(4) No court shall have jurisdiction over an action where the person bringing the action under Section 21-258 obtained the information from an employee or former employee of the County.

Section 21-264. Protection for participating employees.

Any employee who is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or in any other manner discriminated against in the terms or conditions of employment by his or her employer because of lawful acts done by the employee in furtherance of an action under this ordinance, including investigation for, initiation of, testimony for, or assistance in an action filed or to be filed under this ordinance, shall have a cause of action under Florida Statutes, Section 112.3187.

Section 21-265. Burden of proof; presumption of false claim.

(1) Whenever practicable, bid specifications for County contracts shall contain a requirement that the successful bidder maintain, as a condition precedent to submitting a claim against the County, a final bid takeoff. For purposes of this section, "final bid takeoff" shall mean the final estimate, tabulation, or worksheet prepared by the contractor in anticipation of the bid submitted, and which shall reflect the final bid price. The final bid takeoff shall contain a line item for allocation of overhead costs.

(2) Upon request from the County, a contractor making a claim against the County for delay or other damages shall submit, within twenty (20) days, a copy of the final bid takeoff, certified pursuant to this subsection. Failure to provide the requested certification shall constitute a forfeiture of the claim for delay or other damages. The certification shall be submitted under oath by a person duly authorized by the claimant and shall contain a statement that:

(a) the final bid takeoff was prepared contemporaneously with the bid and in anticipation of the bid for the project;

(b) the contractor relied on the final bid takeoff to prepare the bid and the original schedule of values; and

(c) the final bid takeoff has not been altered in any way.

(3) Any claim for extended overhead costs that exceeds, on a per diem basis, more than ten percent (10%) of the overhead per diem contained in the final bid takeoff shall be presumed to be a false claim, and the contractor shall have the burden of proving that any such claim for extended overhead is not false.

Section 21-266. Innocent claimant affirmative defense.

The provisions of this article shall not apply if the claimant can demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence each of the following facts:

- (1) the claimant submitted or caused to have submitted the claim to or against the County reasonably believing that such claim was free of any material misstatements, or any exaggerated, inflated, or unsubstantiated assertions or damages;
- (2) the claimant had no reasonable basis to doubt the truth, veracity, or accuracy of such claim at the time it was submitted;
- (3) prior to submitting the claim, the claimant diligently investigated the facts underlying such claim and prepared the claim in a reasonable manner given all the relevant information available; and
- (4) when information indicating that any element, statement, or allegation in the claim was false or misleading first became available, such claimant, within five business days of discovering the falsity of the claim, took immediate steps to modify, correct, or withdraw such claim and provided the County with immediate notice thereof.<<
